

LAST MAN BATTALION

INTELLIGENCE BRIEF

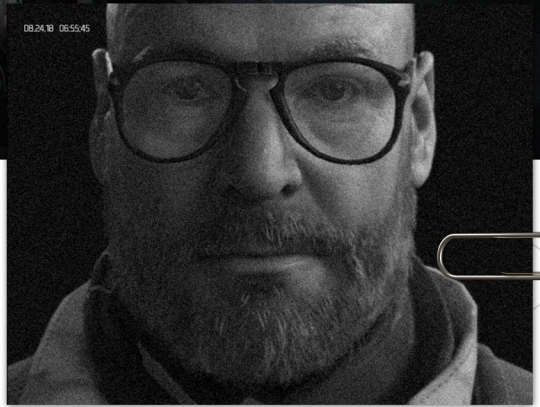

IDENTIFIERS: DISTORTED US FLAG,
STYLIZED FASCIST SYMBOLS

LOCATION: UNDETERMINED

GOAL: FASCIST RULE

ROLE: OCCUPYING FORCE

A worn and battle-weary unit recalled from overseas and diverted to Manhattan. They were none too pleased with the decision. With their requests for transfer gone unheeded and extraction not an option, this unit has become trapped far from home in the worst area of the pandemic. Tired of indecisive local authorities, their commander, Charles Bliss, took matters into his own hands, disobeying direct orders and executing a JTF official—effectively turning his entire company and himself into mutineers.

Convinced not just the city, but the nation, will collapse under the hopeless burden of this virus, this unit has no allegiance to anyone but themselves. The LMB will use any and all means necessary to make sure they make it through the storm.